

The Tarkio Fund Philosophy

A No-Load Fund Managed by Front St. Capital Management

*Updated as of December 29th, 2023

Tarkio Fund is focused on compounding our shareholders' capital at above-average rates over the long term. As an equity investor, we believe we are an owner of the business, and we therefore see ourselves as business analysts rather than market analysts. We believe in a strict adherence to certain specific criteria for determining the quality of the businesses we buy: criteria based on the assumption that great managers can create a corporate culture of empowerment for their employees that results in strong customer loyalty and company performance over time. We think our businesses will outcompete their peers over extended periods of time, better weathering the downturns and capitalizing on the upturns. Our companies are built on teamwork, trust, and continuous improvement. Once we identify these companies we wait for market fluctuations to present us with attractive prices at which to buy them, and we intend to hold them indefinitely.

"When we own portions of outstanding businesses with outstanding managements, our favorite holding period is forever" - Warren Buffett

- Teamwork—Incentivizing cooperation, not competition among employees
- Purpose and Passion—Are leaders and employees passionate about the business and its potential to help their customers?
- Employee Empowerment—Do management practices promote trust and drive fear out of the organization?
- Disciplined Capital Allocation—Does the business operate within its financial means?
